

JOIN THE A14C2H ARCHAEOLOGY COMMUNITY DIG THIS SUMMER

We're looking for volunteers to join one of the largest archaeological excavation projects ever undertaken in Britain: The A14 Cambridge to Huntingdon improvement scheme

VOLUNTEERS WILL BE ABLE TO

- Learn from archaeologists and specialists
- Excavate and record archaeological features
- Clean and process finds
- Participate in digital survey

ABOUT THE SITE

We will be exploring evidence of medieval industrial activity relating to the abandoned village of Houghton, as well as Iron Age and Roman remains.

WHAT WILL BE INVOLVED

A commitment of 5 days (9am - 4pm) Tuesday - Saturday, not necessarily consecutive, between 24th July - 25th August 2018.

Transport will be provided from the A14 Brampton Compound (PE19 5UH), or Huntingdon Station.

Volunteers will need to bring their own boots (steel toe-capped with mid-sole protection).
